Stephen Nonella, Sonoma Soldier Boy, Dies At Camp Fremont

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS YOUNG PATRIOT . BODY BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL YESTERDAY AND LAY IN STATE AT THE CITY HALL

Stephen Nonella, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Nonella, a prominent Swiss family of Sonoma Valley, and a young volunteer in the army of Uncle Sam, died Tuesday at Camp Fremont of pneumonia. The young patriot had been in the service several months and prior to joining the army, was well known here where he spent his young manhood. He has a brother now in France and besides his grief stricken parents, leaves seventeen brothers and sisters to mourn his untimely death.

The community demonstrated its pride and regard of its soldier boy, who offered his life to his country but was destined to pass away before he had reached the much desired field of action over in France, and the sad home-coming of the silent form in the uniform yesterday morning was unusually impressive.

The body which was escorted here from Camp Fremont by Sergeant RM. Prather, arrived on the morning Northwestern train and was met by a large delegation of citizens, Red Cross members, friends and dear ones. With the city hall flag at half mast and the bell in the tower tolling, the funeral procession wended its way to the city hall, the interior of which had been decked with large American flags and handsome flowers There the casket was placed and the remains viewed by hundreds of sorrowing and patriotic citizens, both men and women. The young ladies of the California Glove Company sent a beautiful floral flag and there were many lovely flowers.

As the casket was borne away at 1 o'clock for the se. .ices at St. Francis church, the schools sent their pupils with flags and flowers to do honor to the young soldier.

They formed a line on either side of the main walk leading from the city hall, and down this aisle the flag-draped casket was carried to the hearse.

The services at St. Francis church were conducted by Rev. Father Lacey of Piedmont after which interment took place in Mountain cemetery.

Nonella was 24 years of age and had been employed near Napa before enlisting in the army.

The pall bearers were, Chas. Dal Poggetto and Geo. Breitenbach, representing the city of Sonoma and Joseph Andrieux, John Valente, S. Sartori and L. Nonella, the latter a cousin of the deceased.

At the request of Mayor Dal Poggetto all places of business were closed upon the arrival of the train bearing the body of the soldier boy and also during the funeral hour in the afternoon. It was a token of respect much appreciated.

Miss Henrietta Weber who has been at Yosemite all summer where she has had a nice position at Camp Curry is to return to San Francisco.

Mrs. J. P. McDonnell of Sebastopol is recovering from an operation for appendicitis in a San Francisco hospital.

DEATH CLAIMS C. T. RYLAND

Member of Pioneer Family Succumbs To Illness of Long Duration.

Caius Tacitus Ryland, brother-in-law of F. T. Duhring, and a man of wealth and prominence through his connection with one of California's first families, the late Governor Burnett, passed away Saturday in San Francisco after a lingering illness.

Mr. Ryland suffered a fractured hip some months ago and the shock was more than his frail health could withstand. Up to the last he was devotedly attended by his faithful and splendid wife, the former Miss Agnes Duhring, who has been his constant companion and devoted helpmeet throughout the many years of his invalidism.

The Duhring-Ryland wedding was a society event here some seventeen years ago. Mr. Ryland was an architect by profession, was well educated, widely traveled and a man of much business ability. Of late years however, he had retired from all activities and spent his time between his country place here and in San Francisco where he made his home.

His passing last Saturday was a shock to local friends and relatives who believed him better and looked forward to his coming up to convalesce at the old Duhring home here.

The funeral was held from St. Francis church, Rev. Gleason of Santa Clara University, a noted prelate and classmate, officiating at the solemn high requiem mass.

Many out of town relatives were here for the ceremony and followed the remains to Mountain cemetery where they were placed in the Duhring vault.

Mr. Ryland was 50 years of age.

JUNK & SALVAGE IDEA MAKES HIT AT RED CROSS SHOP

Remember the Red Cross Shop
Everybody! Give and take
Do your bit. Give your bits.

Cause you want to help
Rummage everywhere
On your interest depends
So much. Wake up
Salvage is the watch word!

Sonoma has opened a
Handy emporium,
Open every day for you
People, so aid the good cause.

The acrostic is all right for a preliminary, but getting down to brass tacks, Sonoma's Red Cross Shop which opened Saturday last has made a right successful start.

Schocken's store was transformed into a bower of floral loveliness and over the door the Red Cross emblem and the sign tells the purpose of this handy shop where you "give what you don't want" and "buy what you want." Men and women of Sonoma valley are requested to interest themselves in the idea to raise funds for the great humanitarian work. Junk is wanted and any thing that is desirable to salvage.

The proceeds of the past week's sales at the Salvage Shop as reported by Manager H. F. Bates, who keeps a separate account in the name of the Shop at the Sonoma Valley Bank is as follows;

Saturday, $11.55; Monday, $15.50 Tuesday, $10.10; Wednesday, 21.80;

Mrs. Rudolph Wagner whose husband is at an officers training camp in Texas has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Otto Wagner.

HIGH SCHOOL'S BOND RALLY

Young America Thrills Elders With Four Minute Talks and Community Songs.

The High School rally for the 4th Liberty Loan was a great success and Wednesday's demonstration will not soon be forgotten by patrons of the school. The plaza was the scene of the gathering and the balcony of the city hall served as a rostrum for the speakers.

Frank Sprague of the Advisory Questionnaire Board presided.

The Community singing, led by the High School music teacher, Miss Emily Poppe, showed fine training and the songs were brought in at intervals most effectively.

The young speakers spoke well and their speeches would have been a credit to skilled orators. Their arguments were strong and their delivery worthy of much praise. Miss Anna Lou Dresel recited "In Flanders Field".

The Liberty Loan speakers were Louise Anderson , Portia Harrison, Emma Perry, Major Phillips, Beatrice Heggie, Marguerite Helberg, Henri Michel and Arzola Allemann. The pupils and members of the faculty had purchased $2750 worth of bonds up to the day of the rally.

On Wednesday evening at the Don Theatre, Frank Cornwall and Myrle Bish gave 4 minute talks on the Loan On Thursday evening Miss Norma Jensen and Sylvia Picetti spoke.

SONOMA SOLDIER HAS AN ACCIDENT

Mervyn Bish who is at Americus, Georgia, in an Aviation camp fell seventeen feet and broke one of his ribs this week. He was not flying but engaged in electrical repair work of some kind.

Those from here who attended the Wiedemann funeral in Vallejo last week say it was one of the largest ever held in that city. The late Highway Commissioner was highly esteemed and more than $2000 worth of flowers covered his last resting place.

TRAGIC DEATH OF "JERRY" ALLEN

Deputy Sheriff Meets Sudden Death When Struck By Train Monday.

John Rittenhouse Allen of Glen Ellen, familiarly known the valley over as "Jerry" Allen, met a tragic death near his home Monday evening when he was struck and killed by a Southern Pacific train.

Allen was station agent for the S. P. at Glen Ellen and lived in the station building. He had crossed the tracks to get milk from a neighbor as was his custom and was on his way back when he suddenly realized it was train time and that the train was coming. The aged man miscalculated the speed with which the train bore down upon him and though he hastened to get out of the way and probably thought he had made it, he was hit by the locomotive and fatally hurt. The train men were greatly grieved when they discovered the accident to their friend and fellow employee and he was rushed to the State Home for medical aid. Life however was almost extinct. Mr. Allen breathed his last shortly after reaching the institution.

Deceased was a hardy pioneer and had lived in Glen Ellen 25 years. He was constable and deputy sheriff of Glen Ellen township, an office with which he was repeatedly honored.

He was a picturesque character of that section and a man with a personality which won him friends far and wide. Before coming to California he was a farmer in Indiana. He leaves a large family to mourn his tragic death, a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen of Glen Ellen, two daughters, Mrs. Pearl Allen Rogers of Berkeley Mrs. Wm. Hall of Iowa, one son, E. R. Allen of Cisco and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mr. Allen was aged 76 years 7 months and 14 days.

The funeral took place Thursday and was largely attended.

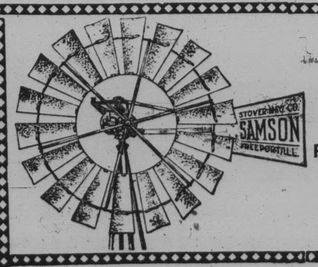

Mrs. Pasch and family have been visiting S. Schocken the past week.

Ray Button, who was convalescent at a Vallejo hospital from an accident was taken down with small pox and his condition has been serious.

Sonoma Valley Goes Over The Top In Fourth Liberty Loan

GRAND RALLY HERE TONIGHT AT PLAZA. DISTRICTS WILL FLASH BOND SALES ON SCREEN. HONOR FLAGS, STREET DANCING, BRASS BAND, MANY FINE RALLIES DURING THE LAST WEEK.

Sonoma Valley has gone over the top in the $160,600 quota of the 4th Liberty Loan, allotted to it and tonight there is to be a mammoth rally in front of the plaza at 8 o'clock sharp. The returns from the various districts, which will tell the tale of our success, will be flashed on a screen, honor flags will be distributed the State Home band will play and there will be street dancing.

Splendid are the pledges to date and mention should also be made of the $8,000 which was our apportionment of the Bonds taken by Sonoma county, Supervisor Weise seconding the motion for the purchase.

GLEN ELLEN

Glen Ellen had a big demonstration last Saturday night. The program was replete with songs by the school pupils, the reading of President Wilson's message by Miss Harriet Brand a comical reading "Mirandy on the Liberty Loan" by Mrs. Cromwell; address, Glen Murdock, address, Walter F. Price and other fine features.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, the chairman of the Liberty Bond Drive in Glen Ellen, presented a gold Liberty Bond pin to the child who had sold the most bonds. Jack London's niece, little Miss Charman Byrne, had the honor of selling the most bonds, $1050 worth.. Since she was a resident of the London ranch, she desired to step aside in favor of the next child, Master Carl Cline, who sold $750 worth.

After the prize had been awarded, Mrs. Shepard announced that only $450 was needed for Glen Ellen to go "Over the Top". Immediately R. P. Hill of Eldridge, arose and subscribed that amount. Than, what a cheer arose! However, the patriotic citizens of Glen Ellen, not content with merely "Going Over the Top," subscribed another $1000, making $10,000 in all for the Glen Ellen District.

The Glen Ellen Woman's Improvement Club invested the money of the Jack London Memorial Fund, $1100, in a Liberty Bond. Also the door receipts of $50 was used to purchase a bond for the Glen Ellen School. A home-made cake, donated by one of the ladies and a Persian cat, donated by Miss Frances Biedermann, were raffled off during the evening, netting the sum of $10.40 which will be invested in W. S. S. for the school.

Much honor and praise is due Mrs. Shepard for her efficient management of the Liberty Bond Drive in Glen Ellen District.

The teachers of the Glen Ellen school, Miss Brand and Miss Todd deserve appreciation for the fine program. An important feature of the program was the thrilling music of the Sonoma State Home Band. Dancing concluded the rally.

WATMAUGH

Watmaugh District also had an intensely patriotic meeting Saturday last. Judge Emmet Seawell and County Treasurer James Ramage were the inspiring speakers. In addition to the patriotic songs and other program numbers by the pupils, there was a stirring poem, composed and recited by the talented authoress of the district, Mrs. E. M. Campbell.

FLOWERY

Flowery lived up to its name and former reputation for patriotic success, and followed up its fine rally of Wednesday with a subscription of $2650 so chairman Boynton announces.

The program at the school house reflected great credit on Miss Johnson, Mrs. Ringressy and Mrs. Perkins. The speakers of the evening were Glen Murdock and Walter Price of Santa Rosa. Musical numbers were the "Marsellaise", Chorus; "My Own United States", Chorus; Parody on "Smiles"; "God Be With Our Boys Tonight" solo by Mrs. A. P. Ringressy; "Liberty Bell" Chorus; "Garibaldi Hymn"; "Laddy Boy", trio by Eddy Meinhardt, David Cohen and Watson Garoni; "Boola" song; "Soldiers Chorus"; "My Antonio" Solo, Miss Foppiano; Canadian National Hymn "Mapleleaf Forever; They Were all Out of Step But Jim" Chorus; "What are You Going To Do To Help the Boys" solo, Wilfred Cohen.

SONOMA

Sonoma had a bond rally last Saturday night also, in connection with the Don Theatre program. Messrs Prestwood and Golton gave strong talks and Mrs. Ralph Hotz led the Community singing.

Tonight is the big night for all districts and a glorious open air demonstration is promised.

Pincers And The Root of Evil

GENERAL FOCH'S masterly military move against the Huns, has been visualized to us in the striking word picture, pincer, and as the jaws of his powerful pincers began closing in and down on the enemy, there was the expected cry of "kamarad" "peace", "spare the faderland". The cry came couched in diplomatic language, camouflaged in seeming submissive terms and willingness to abide by President Wilson's terms, but the request for an armstice straightway forced the questions in every American mind—what guarantee have we of good faith and why should we treat with people who are beaten. The pincers are crunching on the root of evil and getting them there has entailed great sacrifice, colossal effort, the mobilizing of the greatest genius in modern warfare. Our troops and those of our allies which are the steel jaws of those pincers should not now be cheated of that great finale, the up-rooting of wanton power and guarantee of that condition which is to make the world safe for democracy. It is neither cruelty nor vengence which impells the drive on to a satisfactory conclusion. We should have warred in vain were the war to have any but a clean cut conclusion.

To hasten the day of an honorable peace, the way lies open to Germany and contrition on the part of the enemy whose dream of military despotism has been long since dissipated is the least recompense possible. Complete surrender is the only key to peace and as instanced in Bulgaria, where that course was pursued, there was no delay or difficulty in securing it.

President Wilson has spoken for every American home and though the heart of every American mother yearns for the home coming of her boy, there is thought there too for the other boys who have made the supreme sacrifice for the great cause on which we set out to war, and the call is for every son to "carry on" until a worthy victory has been completely won.

We are answering with our dollars to finance this thing to a finish. We are answering with the thunder of big guns all along the battle line.

Perhaps now they are divining "over there" something more in the Yanks than they ever expected. In the beginning the enemy, and even our allies thought they knew what we, as a people were not. Now they know what we are. As fighters we have demonstrated the stuff we are made of and now through President Wilson's masterful handling of the final details of Hun vanquishment, it is being made obvious that Yanks are blessed with more than brawn.

EX-SENATOR GRANT and his man Friday are going to pull off a vice expose meeting in Sonoma, so they announce. The most objectionable resort according to the vice crusader's own affidavit has been eliminated, so why tip over the garbage barrel stuffed to order by the professional scavengers. The alleged connection of certain saloons with a Petaluma bawdy house is not possible since the District attorney is again proceeding against that source of evil. Verily there is no excuse at all for such a meeting but for a few lovers of the salacious to hear polluted words and for the sensation mongers themselves to stage one of their cut and dried spectacular stunts.

What Sonoma needs is good boosters and meetings where Sonoma's good points will be told. Knockers and troublemakers who spread broadcast infamous stories of Sonoma Valley's undesirability as a place of residence should be tabooed.

DAL PORTO TELLS OF HIS TRAVELS

Soldier Boy From Sonoma Writes of England and France in Interesting Letter.

The following letter, descriptive of France and England has been written by Fulton Dal Porto, former partner of B. Mori, and a Sonoma soldier boy. It will be readily appreciated that he is very observing and is enjoying his travels over on the other side;

France, Sept. 10, 1918.

Dear Mr. Murphy:—

As I promised you I am writing of our trip into this country from our own. We traveled across the United States by railroad, over a Southern route and landed in a rest camp at an Eastern sea port after seeing the Niagra Falls. It was an exceedingly warm trip and while crossing deserts and over the middle west, we felt the different climatic conditions quite noticeably.

We were treated grandly by people and the Red Cross en-route and enjoyed the swims and bathing privileges offered us by the Y. M. C. A. No soldier yet has found words of praise to great in expressing his appreciation for kindness done him by any organization such as the Y. M. C. A. It is truly a Christian ideal.

A lot of information is published about the business done and wonderful architecture of New York but one has to really see it to appreciate the vastness of it all.

After we embarked and were finally at sea, we entered upon a quiet but unforgetable voyage. It was tiresome and we traveled under conditions entirely new. We slept in hammocks strung to the ceiling and the best comparison I can offer of bed time is with a bunch of fussy, squaking, squabbling chickens going to roost. The chickens had nothing over on us when it came to temperment and the occasional loud squak will take the place of the yelps a fellow would give when he rolled over and fell out of his hammock. Finally land was sighted and after a time we landed and marched to another rest camp. The population lined the streets and roadway and offered us all kinds of information and gave us expressions of good will. It seems to be a fad of the boys and girls to collect American pennies. The most notable expressions of theirs was, "Sammie ha' you got any cents" and "Say, Joe,got any cents?"

* * * * is a very pretty, green, flat country, every foot of ground seems to be under intense cultivation and the farmers specialize in fine livestock. Houses line the cobbled streets and roadways from town to town which are without noticeable boundries. The houses are built of red brick; all of the same height; the same shape and the same size, except perhaps sometimes one building extends down the length of the block. Sometimes again, if the line is broken, the house will be set back a few feet from the sidewalk to afford growing space for a tree or bush or two and vines or roses climb over a very small porch.

When one gets out into the country the dulled quiet beauty is most noticeable. One would hardly guess a war is on from the quiet peacefullness. The ever brick houses and farm buildings are set closely to the roadway unless it is a large estate and hedges take the place of fences. Evergreen vines climb over the walls of the homes and noiseless steam trains slip by over the country unnoticed. Two great curiosities to the American mind are the coal burning steam auto chain driven trucks and the double decked street cars with women motormen.

We crossed over the * * * * after experiencing an exceedingly rough trip into France, a more rugged and sturdier country, where * * * * is pretty and park-like, France is freer, more open and scenically beautiful. The air is invigorating and everybody seems more alert. Where * * * specializes in brick buildings, France specializes in stone buildings. All homes, barns: among the poorer classes they are the same building, sub-divided. Bridges, public buildings and roadways are built of stone or blocks of stone. The country is heavily wooded and all buildings, parks, farms or enclosures are lined with rows of trees. The buildings of all sizes and descriptions ,mostly all aged, are covered with red tiled roofs or black slate shingles. The weight, after a time becoming excessive, causes the heavy oak timbers to bow down in the center. Most all farm buildings or collection of houses have stone walls surrounding them, forming a little court in which trees are planted that tower over the walls and buildings. The richer people adorn the walls with pots of bright colored flowers and vines or climbing roses. The effects are beautiful.

In the country the boundries of the farms are outlined with blackberry bushes. A stronger fence not being needed for the people are great home abiders and respectful of their neighbors confines.

The Frence people look upon the blackberry fruit as the people in our Southern country used to look upon the fruit of the tomato plant, that they are not edible. They cannot understand why the "Amereks" like them.

We will be in another part of the country after a time and I will write you again.

Yours very truly,
Pvt. F. Dal Porto, Bat. F,
143 F. A., American E. F., France.

HUNS "ON THE RUN" SAYS DODGE

Mrs. M. L. Carter's Grandson, Neal Dodge Writes More About Progress of War and Thrilling Experiences.

The following letters from Sergeant Neal Dodge of the radio service have been received from France by his grandmother, Mrs. M. L. Carter. These are just two of his recent interesting epistles, more of which will follow next week;

Dear Mother:—

Since I last wrote you on July 11 we've moved about a dozen times, trying to keep up with the Germans. Believe me they are running for all they are worth. We've been in this place now about two days but expect to go out again tomorrow. Before that it was move all the time.

We'd no more than get the radio station set up than we'd have to move again. The other day I had the pleasure of being in quite a well known spot where there had been some hard fighting going on the day before. The Germans had just evacuated the evening before and had left a big pile of junk, everything imaginable. Souvenirs are thick but I cant be bothered with them. I've all I can manage now.

Last week in the town I wrote you from we had our first burst of shell fire. They shelled the town for 4 or 5 hours at pretty regular intervals then the next day they did some more interesting intermittant shelling and that evening sent over a bombing plane. It did a little damage but not much. Oh! yes, he frightened us, for he was so close, while the shells had been landing about a mile from us. The disagreeable feature of it was that they waked us up and we had to hike for the cellar. We were very much afraid they were after our radio plant. Well those nights I got about 4 hours sleep and since then I've had about 2 hours sleep a night except for the last 2 nights and even then I slept in my clothes. Oh! lots of fun! But how much easier our lot is than the majority of the boys, but its bad enough, but theirs is ten times worse.. The last two nights our sleep has been disturbed, but by the guns, but not for long as we were all too dead for sleep to let it bother us long. But when they are so close to you that they shake the ground, it is bound to waken most anyone. There was a big bunch of them all around us but thank God they have moved out. They draw too much shell fire from the Hun and though we are in a place where it is practically impossible for their shell fire to do us any damage, it nevertheless makes us rather uncomfortable. All I hope is that they will drive the Hun so far that he will never have any desire to come back. Believe me, from the way they are running now, home looks most powerful close. Well must close for this time. Your son, Neal.

August 22.

We moved from the last place I wrote you from about a week ago and went back to our old camp at the "old mill" for a rest of three days. There the first two days we were given permission to visit the city in which I was operating prior to this drive and even given trucks to transport us there and back. I went down the first day, had a feed at "Mothers Place" and wandered about the city. We couldn't locate a sales commissary so couldn't purchase much of anything. The next day I was on guard, that is what I dislike about so-called rest camps, I would rather be up working. Well it was best that we go back there the bad water etc. that naturally goes along with hasty moves was about getting our nanny. We left the "Old Mill" on the fourth day and traveled all that day and the next, till 12:30 p. m. We were transfered in truckss this time. It certainly was the most pleasant trip I've had in France, yes very dusty, but it was not tiresome as were the trips on the cars, one had an opportunity to stretch his limbs. Then too we slept well at night. The first night was spent in a field, rolled up in our blankets, gee but it did seem good. I would much rather sleep out under the stars that way than stay in any billet I've been in yet. That first night was the first time I've seen stores lit up after night or any amount of light anywhere. We were so far from the lines that there was no danger. Believe me, it seemed good. The next day we traveled till 12:30, midnight when we arrived at our last billet. We stayed there three days, two of those days we were given passes to the city nearby, a very well known city, I would like to tell but you know it is impossible. This was a real treat as the city is of some size and things are different to those we've seen in other cities we've been billeted near. There were large department stores etc. and I might say many pretty girls. The second day I was in town was the first time I've said more than a dozen words to a girl since we left the U. S. We met these girl clerks in a jewelry store and we spent most of our liberty there kidding them, they could talk a bit of English, so we got along famously. We were billited near an old French camp there, believe me this place is fortified to a fare-the-well. The other night, well both nights in fact, Fritz came over to visit us, the second night he dropped a couple of eggs; you know as soon as they get word that a Hun machine is about, they flash the search lights above to locate him and shoot at him with the anti-air craft guns; some of the fellows were outside watching this when the Hun got uncomfortably close overhead and schrapnel began dropping about them. Bang went a bomb two seconds later.

Sept. 17th

My dear Mother:

Your most welcome letter of Aug. 21st was received yesterday. That is what I call good time in mail service. There isn't anything very interesting to tell you about this place. No doubt you've heard all about our recent drive and its success.. They sure must have caught old Fritz napping this time and he was too busy to even trouble us back here. We didn't even get a shell or bomb, but Oh! such a scrap as we did put up! The other day they marched about 3000 Hun prisoners through here, it sure was some bunch. All, or nearly all had their personal belongings in a box or bundle fastened on their backs and very few of them had their helmets on. I understand they were all packed and waiting to be captured when the boys went over the top.

It has been raining here all morning but is nice and cool again now. Last evening was certainly the most beautiful evening we've had in some time, though there were no girls with us, we sat out a long time examining the moon through field glasses and watching the search lights look for Hun airplanes. Say no doubt you know how strong limberger cheese is, well it isn't in it with some of this cheese we get. I used to pass up such junk, but now I eat it as though I had eaten it all my life.

Just a sample of the oddities of the methods of harvesting over here; two-thirds of the grain is cut by hand, its then run through a horse power or man power thresher and then through a man power separator They sure have ancient methods of doing things over here. Then too, fully two-thirds of the hard labor is done by women and boys. What made me think of this was that I was just down town and stopped to watch the operation. Compare this with our modern machinery that cuts thrashes, seperates and sacks the grain, all at one time, some method!! Well I must close for this time.

Your son Neal.

PAUL VANNUCCHI BUYS

Paul Vannucchi of Verano came up from San Francisco Wednesday to purchase $500 worth of Liberty Bonds in Sonoma and thus boost our quota which he heard was coming along slow. Paul is loyal to Uncle Sam and to old Sonoma too. In San Francisco where he has his place of business, Vannucchi bought $1000 worth of bonds of this issue last week. Good boy, Paul!

PHIL VARNER CANDIDATE FOR TAX COLLECTOR HERE

Phil Varner, candidate for Tax Collector, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Varner has many friends here who are waiting to help out on that big majority they anticipate he will get on November 5th. Mr. Varner is at present one of Sheriff Smith's deputies and is a good officer and painstaking official. As Tax Collector of Sonoma county he would be both efficient and accommodating.

Lieutenant A. M. Thomson has been on the sick list at Camp Fremont. He had an attack of Spanish influenza which has been under quarantine there..

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

A reception to the freshman class will be given in the Woman's Club House, Friday evening, Oct. 18, by the pupils of the three upper classes.

This will be the first of a series of social affairs to be given monthly by the pupils of the high school. The Woman's Club has kindly consented to rent their beautiful hall to the Student Body for these functions which, in future will be held on the second Friday of each month from 8:00 until 11:00 p. m. The evenings will be spent in the enjoyment of programs, games and dancing. Thus the pupils of our high school will have plenty of opportunities for social training in entertaining others and in being entertained.

The Rally

The Sonoma Valley Union High School held a rally for the Fourth Liberty Loan in the plaza on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 16, at 3 o'clock. The boys are girls marched in two military companies to the plaza with colors flying and to the beat of drums. The order of march was as follows:

1. A groupe of boys bearing posters urging ahe purchase of bonds.
2. Our Service Flag.
3. Girls following the Flag.
4. Boys following the Flag.

Each company carried a large flag.

Each subscriber to the Loan will wear on his sleve an insignia containing the words "Subscriber to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

EX-SENATOR GRANT TO STAGE PERFORMANCE HERE

Ex-Senator Grant, whose antics have afforded communities in various parts of the state a fair idea of the professional reformers tactics is to follow up his lurid affidavit relative to Sonoma Valley's vice conditions with a public meeting scheduled for October 25th. With Mr. Ehrgott he will address the people of this valley and strip Sonoma to the bone, exposing the unspeakable and vile conditions which he claims exist hereabouts and putting his construction on them for the edification of his auditors. Those who have been ignorant of Sonoma's tenderloin, will be wised up, and those who are supposed to be responsible for them will be dealt with in true Grant fashion.

It is understood that the request to use the handsome Grammar school auditorium was frowned on as reports have been current that the attempt to befoul Sonoma's fair name will be answered with a volley of eggs of such character that they might spatter up the well-kept auditorium. The principal and trustees therefore were opposed to getting the school into a possible melee.

Grant has held meetings in other towns of the county and generally winds them up with a petition which he asks those present to sign to close up the saloons and resorts which he attacks.

Grant's mania is prohibition in a virulent form and his campaign is a phase of the "wet" and "dry" fight.

It is said that Postmaster John Wagnon will preside at the meeting scheduled to be held here.

Mrs. Ernest Lynch, (Ramona Granice) has been down from her ranch in Mendocino county, the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. F. Sprague in Alameda. She visited Mrs. Georgie Andrews Stock and Mrs. Beth Trudgen Winston the past week. Mrs. Lynch will return to Two Rivers shortly and expects to put in the winter on the big stock ranch where she and her husband are raising beef cattle and hogs.

All Welcome!

UNCLE SAM'S ADVICE ON FLU

U. S. Public Health Service Issues Official Health Bulletin on Influenza.

LATEST WORD ON SUBJECT.

Epidemic Probably Not Spanish In Origin—Germ Still Unknown—People Should Guard Against "Droplet Infection"—Surgeon General Blue Makes Authoritative Statement.

Washington, D. C.—(Special.)—Although King Alphonso of Spain was one of the victims of the influenza epidemic in 1893 and again this summer, Spanish authorities repudiate any claim to influenza as a "Spanish" disease. If the people of this country do not take care the epidemic will become so widespread throughout the United States that soon we shall hear the disease called "American" influenza.

In response to a request for definite information concerning Spanish influenza, Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the U. S. Public Health Service has authorized the following official interview:

What is Spanish Influenza? Is it something new? Does it come from Spain?

"The disease now occurring in this country and called 'Spanish Influenza' resembles a very contagious kind of 'cold' accompanied by fever, pains in the head, eyes, ears, back or other parts of the body and a feeling of severe sickness. In most of the cases the symptoms disappear after three or four days, the patient then rapidly recovering. Some of the patients, however develop pneumonia, or inflammation of the ear, or meningitis, and many of these complicated cases die. Whether this so-called 'Spanish' influenza is identical with the epidemics of influenza of earlier years is not yet known.

"Epidemics of influenza have visited this country since 1647. It is interesting to know that this first epidemic was brought here from Valencia, Spain. Since that time there have been numerous epidemics of the disease. In 1889 and 1890 an epidemic of influenza, starting somewhere in the Orient, spread first to Russia and thence over practically the entire civilized world. Three years later there was another flare-up of the disease. Both times the epidemic spread widely over the United States.

"Although the present epidemic is called 'Spanish influenza,' there is no reason to believe that it originated in Spain. Some writers who have studied the question believe that the epidemic came from the Orient and they call attention to the fact that the Germans mention the disease as occurring along the eastern front in the summer and fall of 1917."

How can "Spanish Influenza" be recognized?

"There is as yet no certain way in which a single case of 'Spanish influenza' can be recognized. On the other hand, recognition is easy where there is a group of cases. In contrast to the outbreaks of ordinary coughs and colds, which usually occur in the cold months, epidemics of influenza may occur at any season of the year. Thus the present epidemic raged most intensely in Europe in May, June and July. Moreover, in the case of ordinary colds, the general symptoms (fever, pain, depression) are by no means as severe or as sudden in their onset as they are in influenza. Finally, ordinary colds do not spread through the community so rapidly or so extensively as does influenza.

"In most cases a person taken sick with influenza feels sick rather suddenly. He feels weak, has pains in the eyes, ears, head or back, and may be sore all over. Many patients feel dizzy, some vomit. Most of the patients complain of feeling chilly, and with this comes a fever in which the temperature rises to 100 to 104. In most cases the pulse remains relatively slow.

"In appearance one is struck by the fact that the patient looks sick. His eyes and the inner side of his eyelids may be slightly 'bloodshot,' or 'congested,' as the doctors say. There may be running from the nose, or there may be some cough. These signs of a cold may not be marked; nevertheless the patient looks and feels very sick.

"In addition to the appearance and the symptoms as already described, examination of the patient's blood may aid the physician in recognizing 'Spanish influenza,' for it has been found that in this disease the number of white corpuscles shows little or no increase above the normal. It is possible that the laboratory investigations now being made through the National Research Council and the United States Hygienic Laboratory will furnish a more certain way in which individual cases of this disease can be recognized."

What is the course of the disease? Do people die of it?

"Ordinarily, the fever lasts from three to four days and the patient recovers. But while the proportion of deaths in the present epidemic has generally been low, in some places the outbreak has been severe and deaths have been numerous. When death occurs it is usually the result of a complication."

What causes the disease and how is it spread?

"Bacteriologists who have studied influenza epidemics in the past have found in many of the cases a very small rod-shaped germ called, after its discoverer, Pfeiffer's bacillus. In other cases of apparently the same kind of disease there were found pneumococci, the germs of lobar pneumonia. Still others have been caused by streptococci, and by others germs with long names.

"No matter what particular kind of germ causes the epidemic, it is now believed that influenza is always spread from person to person, the germs being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, forceful talking, and the like by one who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing, or from careless people who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk. As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others."

What should be done by those who catch the disease?

"It is very important that every person who becomes sick with influenza should go home at once and go to bed. This will help keep away dangerous complications and will, at the same time, keep the patient from scattering the disease far and wide. It is highly desirable that no one be allowed to sleep in the same room with the patient. In fact, no one but the nurse should be allowed in the room.

"If there is cough and sputum or running of the eyes and nose, care should be taken that all such discharges are collected on bits of gauze or rag or paper napkins and burned. If the patient complains of fever and headache, he should be given water to drink, a cold compress to the forehead and a light sponge. Only such medicine should be given as is prescribed by the doctor. It is foolish to ask the druggist to prescribe and may be dangerous to take the so-called 'safe, sure and harmless' remedies advertised by patent medicine manufacturers.

"If the patient is so situated that he can be attended only by some one who must also look after others in the family, it is advisable that such attendant wear a wrapper, apron or gown over the ordinary house clothes while in the sick room and slip this off when leaving to look after the others.

"Nurses and attendants will do well to guard against breathing in dangerous disease germs by wearing a simple fold of gauze or mask while near the patient."

Will a person who has had influenza before catch the disease again?

"It is well known that an attack of measles or scarlet fever or smallpox usually protects a person against another attack of the same disease. This appears not to be true of 'Spanish influenza.' According to newspaper reports the King of Spain suffered an attack of influenza during the epidemic thirty years ago, and was again stricken during the recent outbreak in Spain."

How can one guard against influenza?

"In guarding against disease of all kinds, it is important that the body be kept strong and able to fight off disease germs. This can be done by having a proper proportion of work, play and rest, by keeping the body well clothed, and by eating sufficient wholesome and properly selected food. In connection with diet, it is well to remember that milk is one of the best all-around foods obtainable for adults as well as children. So far as a disease like influenza is concerned, health authorities everywhere recognize the very close relation between its spread and overcrowded homes. While it is not always possible, especially in times like the present, to avoid such overcrowding, people should consider the health danger and make every effort to reduce the home overcrowding to a minimum. The value of fresh air through open windows cannot be over emphasized.

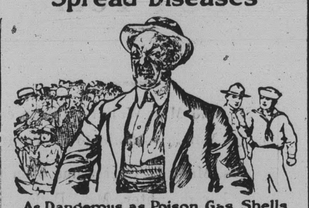

"When crowding is unavoidable, as in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to inhale directly the air breathed out by another person.

"It is especially important to beware of the person who coughs or sneezes without covering his mouth and nose. It also follows that one should keep out of crowds and stuffy places as much as possible, keep homes, offices and workshops well aired, spend some time out of doors each day, walk to work if at all practicable—in short, make every possible effort to breathe as much pure air as possible.

"In all health matters follow the advice of your doctor and obey the regulations of your local and state health officers."

"Cover up each cough and sneeze, If you don't you'll spread disease."

Wer conditions have certainly stirred up Sonoma from stem to gudgeon and when it comes to a melting pot, Israel Zangwell should see Sonoma's cannery.

* * * * *

We can tomatoes and Society and have stripped the camouflage off everybody until all that is left is the heart of 'em. The big American heart that wants to do war work. Everything else is scrapped.

* * * * *

And why shouldn't it be this way? When your boy, your neighbors boy, your friend and my friend are dodging U-boats and dodging schrapnel, and fighting in the trenches. And fighting cootes. And winning honors.

* * * * *

Whether you've got a day's wages or a big income, he's fighting the same fight. Whether you'rs in society or i nthe wash tub, he's making the same sacrifice. That's the only thing that counts, because he's got the jazz, and whether you've got a family tree or a family skeleton. Who wants to know?

* * * * *

A loyal background and composite patriotism, that's all the soldier wants. He don't need blue blood or bank books in his family. Because he's got the guts to fight. My word, there's no such animal in the blue book.

* * * * *

But all stripped of the prettier vocabulary. It's the truth. Your boy and my boy out to mollyhock the Hun brute. And we got to back 'em up and it matters not a continental who we rub elbows with. So long as the sleeve next to us is rolled up and wading into work. And that's the way to figure it. And that's one place to see it. Up at our cannery.

* * * * *

And it sure makes one glad to see the non-sweat club boiling out all the accumulated pep. You wouldn't think they had it in 'em, Lord love 'em! These retired capitalists, and money lenders, and remittance men, and some that Ostler long ago called prehistoric.

* * * * *

Post-script—George Engler, of course he's a boy, and sweat he sure does, hustling hot tomato cans—retired? yes, and running 8 cylinders strong. Bill Durant, grandfather and money lender with the hot can brigade and a whirlwind for speed.

* * * * *

And as for the weaker sex, they're strong on work too, bless 'em! And 100 per cent good American. Some whose ancestors signed the Declaration of Independence! Some who saw the statue of Liberty only last year! Wives with husbands "over there"! Mothers with sons, dearer than life itself, who are wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam. Sisters of soldiers and sweethearts too! They are all there, true blue war workers. Let the good work go on!

CAMERON BROTHERS ANSWER PATRIOTIC CALL

Sidney and Donald Cameron will be ready to answer the call of the U. S. A. for active service at the front. Sidney is already at U. C. in the Students Corps and is attached to the barracks there. Donald has enlisted in the Tanks division and is waiting to be called. The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron of the Clements ranch and grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Coleman.

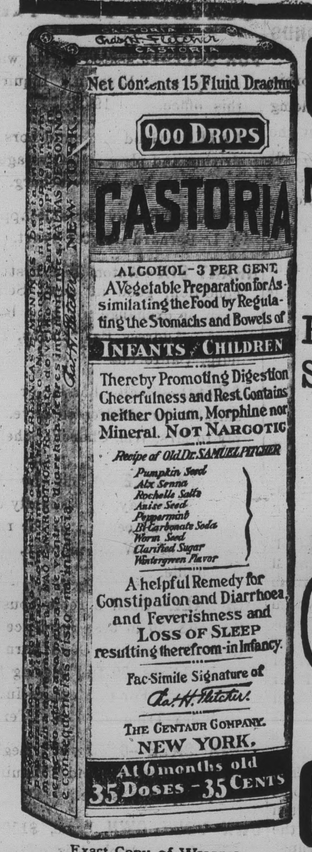

Mrs. Will Cummings has been down from Eureka on a visit to her mother and her brother, Theo Keiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Russell are now located in town in Pontiac, Michigan as owing to the curtailment of road building, the gravel business is shut down there until after the war. Mr. Russell however is engaged in setting up machinery for construction work for the government and is prospering. Russell Colton, the soldier boy son of Mrs. Russell is in France and writes interestingly of his gas mask drills and instruction "over there."

Miss Bessie Knight who has a responsible position with one of San Francisco's banking firms, was up on Discovery day, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Knight at Schellville.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zane of Woodland were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson. Their son has been on the battle fronts fo France in all the important recent engagements.

J. K. Bigelow, wife, and the Misses Kenyon went to Petaluma for the Liberty Loan rally Saturday night.

CHEMICAL ENGINE PURCHASE HUNG UP

At a meeting of the city trustees Thursday evening, the matter of purchasing a chemical engine for fire protection in Sonoma was up for discussion. The acquiring of a pumping unit in connection with the chemical which was held by some of the trustees to be essential was inquired into and would costs approximately $2250. A trailer would carry a centrifugal pump with gasoline motor, the pump delivering 300 galons of water a minute with 10 lbs pressure in the fire hydrant.

Trustees Bulotti and Campbell are strongly in favor of the chemical engine and voice the opinion of many property owners who demand this cheap and effective defense from the fire menace which imperils this community. The rental plan of payment would not work any hardship on the tax payers.

THE FORMER RIXFORD RANCH

A subscriber asks us to corerct the history of the Rixford place of which there was a recent account in this paper. Thos. B. Carmody purchased it from Mrs. L. P. Rixford and it was sold by him to A. W. Lehrke. Mr. Riebli was the leasee of the ranch for some years.

Word has been received here that Dr. Ray F. DeSart, of Mason City, Iowa, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. DeSart of this valley, has arrived safely in France where he is a Y. M. C. A secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. von Hacht were over from Vallejo this week, Mrs. von Hacht returning Tuesday.

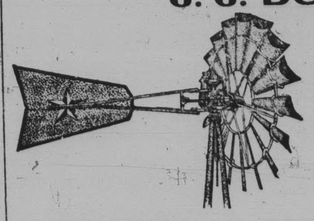

Chris Reynolds of the Sheriff's office was in town Wednesday.

Does Pershing Speak for You?

"The German army can be beaten;
the German army will be beaten;
the German army must be beaten."

Pershing counted on every man, woman and child in America to back him up when he said that—back him up with their souls, their flesh, their pocketbooks—to the last drop of blood, to the last dollar.

Our young men are backing him with their blood. Every one of us at home must back him with our dollars—our last dollars—our future dollars.
